

Johnson heads up McAlpine campaign in Southeast Alaska

Lt. Gov. Stephen McAlpine announced recently the appointment of Marlene Johnson of Hoonah to the position of Southeast Alaska Chairperson for the Democrat's 1990 gubernatorial campaign.

As the chairperson, Johnson will be establishing policy direction for the region.

Johnson currently serves as chairman of the Sealaska Corp. She has served on numerous boards and commissions over the years, including the Tundra Times, the State of Alaska Personnel Board, the Governor's Interim Commission on Children and Youth and the Hoonah Indian Association.