

1969 WORLD ESKIMO OLYMPICS EVENTS

QUEEN CONTESTANTS—Charming native girls line before the audience while competing for the 1969 World Eskimo Olympics queen. No. 12, Marie Irwin of Nenana was chosen to succeed 1968 Queen Audrey Ambrose of Huslia.

SEAL SKINNING—The popular seal skinning contest was won by Rhoda Nageak, right, while Irene Itta, left, was second and Edith Tegoseak, center was third. Rhoda has been seal skinning champion for three years.

CHAMPION HI-KICKER—Job Kasuk of Barrow is showing his winning style in winning Eskimo hi-kick.

PHOTOGRAPHS
BY DIGNA JOHNSON

MASTER OF CEREMONIES—Capt. Bill English of Wien Consolidated Airlines was master of ceremonies at the Olympics. At top right is 1968 Olympics Queen Audrey Ambrose.

BARROW DANCERS—Winning Barrow Eskimo dancers are seen leading the parade of Olympics performers prior to performance of events. They have been many times champions in the 8-year history of Olympics.