ENERGY IN RURAL ALASKA:

Where we are, where we're going.

In 1979 the TUNDRA TIMES put out a special edition on energy which led to a major change in state energy policy. Next week we will re-examine the state of energy today. All energy programs, policies and people are examined in this special edition.

A few of the many contributors to this edition are:

Governor Jay Hammond

Senator Ted Stevens

Senator Frank Ferguson

State divisions of power and energy development

Rural Community Action Program

Tanana Chiefs Conference

Alaska Power Authority

Right here in the TUNDRA TIMES, THE newspaper of rural Alaska.
