

SOCIAL SECURITY FOR DOMESTICS

Many persons who employ household help don't understand their Social Security tax obligations for domestic employees. A quarterly return must be filed for each employee who earned $50 or more in cash wages for that quarter. Room and board and other non-cash items are not subject to FICA tax.