

Village Phones

United Utilities has turned up two of the eight telephone exchanges schedule for this year. The new exchanges are at Mountain Village and Pilot Station in Western Alaska. Telephone calls for these communities can be dialed direct. Effective July 28, 1980. Telephone numbers for the residents of these two villages are available by dialing directly assistance, 555-1212.

Single bush telephone operated by Alascom have been disconnected.