

Wounded Knee...

(Continued from page 6)

after sunup and 6 p.m. just before sundown in observance of the following conditions:

The names of women and children would not be taken.

No arms could be borne approaching the exits but that arms would be tagged and labeled for later recovery by members of the occupying members of the occupying group.

All non-residents, all Oglala Sroux who did not live in the area at the time of take-over would have to depart.

No criminal charges or arrests would be made at that time but would come at a later that would come at a later that with the convenies of a date with the convening of a federal grand jury.

The response to the offer by the Justice Department was one of rejection. The paper pre-sented to the village was burned approximately 40 hours ago. Yesterday negotiations took a Yesterday negotiations took a serious turn in another direction. The group holding Wounded Knee asked to negotiate with the Interior Department rather than the Justice Department. If they could take care of the serious issues which they've raised both locally and nationally, they would consider abandonment of the site.

On orders from the Interior Department, the request was rejected and today, the Justice (Continued on page 11)

(Continued on page 11)

TCC's Guest Speaker

W. W. KEELER

The Fanana Chiefs Confer ence announced that Mr. W. W. Keeler, Chairman of the Board of Directors of Philhps Petroleum Company, will be the guest speaker at their annual convention.

Mr. Keeler will speak to the March 15. The Mr. Refer will speak to the convention on March 15. The convention - will be held in Fairbanks on March 14, 15, and 16, preceding the North American World Championship Dog Pages.

Races.
Mr. Keeler, a Cherokee In-MI. Keeler, a Cherokee Indian from Oklahoma, is nationally known in the petroleum industry and has spent many years assisting the federal administrations in programs oriented toward Indian grains offented toward Indian self-determination. In making the announcement, Senator John C. Sackett, Presi-dent of Tanana Chiefs Conferdent of Tanana Chiefs Conference, stated that "We are extremely happy and honored that a ,person of such reknown will be able to share with us the thinking, knowledge, and progress of the Indian people in the other States. In addition, I feel that we will benefit from his years of experience in the field of business and the oil industry." industry.