

TCC's Guest Speaker

W. W. KEELER

The Tanana Chiefs Conference announced that Mr. W. W. Keeler, Chairman of the Board of Directors of Phillips Petroleum Company, will be the guest speaker at their annual convention.

Mr. Keeler will speak to the convention on March 15. The convention will be held in Fairbanks on March 14, 15, and 16, preceding the North American World Championship Dog Races.

Mr. Keeler, a Cherokee Indian from Oklahoma, is nationally known in the petroleum industry and has spent many years assisting the federal administrations in programs oriented toward Indian self-determination.

In making the announcement, Senator John C. Sackett, President of Tanana Chiefs Conference, stated that "We are extremely happy and honored that a person of such reknown will be able to share with us the thinking, knowledge, and progress of the Indian people in the other States. In addition, I feel that we will benefit from his years of experience in the field of business and the oil industry."
