

Task Force reports available

The Alaska State Library has a limited number of copies of Governor Sheffield's Transition Task Forces Report available for borrowing. The document contains written findings and recommendations of several task forces that reviewed state government departments and identified critical issues to be dealt with during the Sheffield administration.

The Task Forces Report may also be borrowed from libraries which are depositories for state publications in Fairbanks, Anchorage, Ketchikan, Sitka, Nome, Kodiak, Kenai, and Bethel.
