

Seconds away from winning the IDITAROD, Tiny was awakened and dressed for a walk in the park.

their own food and braving sub-zero temperatures, avalanches, and the occasional hostile moose.

And once again this year, as

Alaska Airlines

for the past dozen years, Alaska Airlines will be at the finish line to present the Leonhard Seppala Humanitarian Award to the musher who demonstrates the best care of his or her dogs during the race.

And for Tiny, and all the others for whom the Iditarod

can only be a spec-

Proud sponsor of the 1993 Iditarod

tator sport, Alaska Airlines has an easier way for you to experience this incredible event. Our attractively discounted Iditarod fares make it practical for you to be at the start of the race in Anchorage, and at the finish line in Nome.

THE WORLD-FAMOUS IDITAROD. For most, it is just a dream. For a mighty few, it is the culmination of a lifetime of training and preparation. This year's most remarkable athletes will race more than a thousand miles in the snow and ice — carrying

Great Rates
To The Great Race.

Discounted fares to the race start in Anchorage and the finish in Nome.

Discount applies to roundtrip travel within the state of Alaska (flight series 0-799, excluding Prudhoe Bay and Gustavus) to Anchorage and returning 3/4-3/8/93 and to Nome and returning 3/12-3/22/93. Fare requires ticket purchase three days prior to departure and a minimum 2-day stay. Seats are limited. Offer is subject to change without notice. Other restrictions apply.