

Some People with Backgrounds in the Effort to Improve Native Situations

Joe Upicksoun
Leading the Arctic battle

Native Students
Listening, thinking, learning

SOMETHING'S GOING ON HERE—Native people all around Alaska are busy in their individual ways working to improve their way of life. What is going on is that Natives have "caught on" to their potentialities and the great challenges that face them as emerging peoples. Pictured on this page are just a handful of the individuals involved in day-to-day work where Alaska Native concerns are involved.

Lael Morgan
She's writing about it

Fred Bigjim
He's educating Natives on land claims

Pat Mayo
Equal employment for Natives

Roger Lang
Directing Alaska Federation of Natives

Sen. Willie Hensley
Making laws in Juneau

Lucy Carlo
Involved in corporation business