

MORE PHOTOS FROM TUNDRA TIMES

HOWARD ROCK, Editor and publisher of the Tundra Times, Howard Rock, was the guest of honor during the social highlight of the AFN Convention, the Tundra Times banquet in Dec. 17. The dinner honoring Howard was the largest ever held in the state of Alaska.

CERTIFIED THE ROLL—Dr. Marshall Lynn, Assistant Secretary of the Interior, spoke to AFN delegates during the convention as she presented certified copies of the enrollment to corporations.

ACCEPTS THE ROLL—Robert Newland, president of the Northwest Alaska Native regional corporation, accepts the certification of the roll for his area from Dr. Marshall Lynn, Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

PRESIDENT, AFN WASHINGTON—Mrs. Rachel Craig, an Eskimo born in Kotzebue, leads the Alaska Natives of Washington State as the president of their chapter of the Alaska Federation of Natives.

I WANT TO MAKE THIS PERFECTLY CLEAR, said John Sackett, Alaska State Senator and president of the Doyon Corporation as he addressed the AFN Convention. Sen. Sackett is chairman of the board of directors of AFN, Inc. He is also chairman of the Tundra Times board of directors.

BOY! AM I HAPPY—Alaska State Senator Willie Hensley seems to be relieved of a very heavy burden as he has recently resigned the presidency of the Alaska Federation of Natives. Hensley, is expected to announce within the near future as a statewide political candidate.