

What Saith the Scriptures?

Christ or the World—Which?
And that is the question
with you, reader!

Does the world think any more of Christ now than 1900 years ago? Go into that company there, and say, "Let us have a little talk about Christ;" and they'll think, "Away with Him; we don't want to hear about Him, we'll talk of anything, anybody, but Him." The vote of the world is still the same. God says, "Seek ye first the kingdom of God." But the people say, No. Many things are first before Christ. God says Christ is to be the Man, and He is to be first; and the world virtually says, No. What terrible folly!

Reader, I ask, Are you born again? Is your soul saved? If not, what will this profit you if God were to say, "Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee!" (Luke 12:20). What then! "Ah! lost forever," you would cry, "and I might have been saved had I taken God's plan and put Christ first!" Then, reader, I beseech you, even as you are reading this, to be reconciled unto God. It will be a terrible thing for you to go to hell, for there you must go if you have not accepted Christ—if you are not converted to God. Don't tarry. "Make your calling and election sure" (2 Pet. 1:10). Take the lost sinner's place, and claim the lost sinner's Savior. Let the language of your soul be:

"He was in the world, and the world was made by Him, and the world knew Him not. He came unto His own, and His own received Him not. But as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His name" (John 1:10-12).

"Neither is there salvation in any other" (Acts 4:12). "Without shedding of blood is no remission" (Heb. 9:22).

"How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation?" (Heb. 2:3).

My eternal choice is made—
Christ for me."
