

Claims Hearings

WASHINGTON, D.C.—Congressman Howard W. Pollock expressed satisfaction that hearings will be held in Alaska October 12 through October 18 on his Land Claims Bill H.R. 13142, which was introduced by Pollock by request in late July.

The Alaska Congressman has repeatedly urged the House Subcommittee on Indian Affairs to hold field hearings in Alaska on the bill.

Hearings will be held in Anchorage and Fairbanks and in informal meetings elsewhere in the state, Pollock, a member of the Sub-Committee, said.

Elusive Cake Substituted for Hot Dog

By SANDRA SHROYER
Kotzebue, Alaska
When we went to the Carival (Carnival: editor) we got or tickets. First we went to the bean bag toss. I gave them three tickets for nine bags, I made only one bag in. I got one big pen.

And after that I went to get me a straw hat. After I got me a hat, I went to cake walk, the first time I was there I tried three times, but I never got a cake so I went out in the hall.

I went to our room the Baloon Burst that was really fun. I tried hitting the balloons six times and I never hit one.

I went to the hoop toss, I made it once. I saw some of my friends, I went over to them and asked if Roberta wanted to come and she said yes so she went with me. We went to the cake walk in the gym, me and Roberta tried three times and never won a cake.

We got hungry so we went and had a hot dog and ice cream. Then we went to the fish pond, we both tried two times each, she got a little doll and a ball, I got a little monster and a play watch.

I went to the Eskimo game I let Roberta try it first she did it six times and made it twice. I tried it nine times and made three of them, and I got little pens.

We never won a watch or a cake. We didn't even win the cart of food, we didn't even win a cake but we still had lots of fun.
