ATTENTION

Sports Fans —

The TUNDRA TIMES is currently in the process of re-evaluating our sports coverage for coming issues of our paper.

We will follow the Dog Mushing season through the completion and at this time we need some advice from our fans with regard to which areas you would like us to cover in coming months.

At the bottom of this ad is a cut-out selection sheet in which we would like you to mark the sports of your choice and add any that we may have missed. Your advice is essential so that we may bring you the coverage you want to read.

Please fill out the form as soon as possible.
