

California gold rush to be relived in song in Barrow

The Mother Lode Troupe's production of "Divas of the Golden West" is coming to Barrow. The live recreation of a gold rush musical entertainment will be presented at Barrow, Alaska on November 29, 1980 at 8:00.

Divas of the Golden West carries the audience back to 1853 in San Francisco when 2 great singers grudgingly consent to a joint appearance, offering temperament and music in equal measure.

The four members of troupe will present songs and entertainment known and loved in mid 19th century California.

This is the second Performing Arts program Barrow has presented. It is sponsored in part by City of Barrow, Barrow Utilities, Alaska National Bank, N.S.B. School, Lion's Club, Barrow Mechanical, H.W. Blackstock, Wien, Pepe's, Flowers & Things, Building Constructor, Inc., Inupiat Water Delivery, Ken's Restaurant, Benson's Restaurant, Michael Jeffery and Eskimo, Inc. All local businesses and civil organizations.

Tickets available at Barrow Utilities, Alaska National Bank, City office and Pepe's, as well as at the door.

This program is supported by a grant from Alaska State Council on the Arts. This tour is coordinated by Arts Alaska Inc. Alaska's not-for profit arts service corporation.
