

PUBLIC NOTICE

The Office on Aging, Department of Health and Social Services, under authority contained in HB 611, Chapter 152, SLA, authorizing State aid for service programs for the benefit of older Alaskans, 60 years of age and older, is soliciting grant applications from eligible Sponsors (municipalities of the state and non-profit corporations organized under the laws of the state).

An eligible sponsor receiving a grant under this provision shall contribute to the total cost of the program by a cash or in-kind match ranging from 10 percent to 30 percent.

Service programs means the following general categories of services: Health; nutrition; volunteer; leisure-time and recreational; housing; home health and homemaker; counseling; information and referral; transportation; employment; educational activities; legal services and assistance.

For further information and grant application forms contact the Office on Aging, Pouch H01C, Juneau, Alaska 99811, phone 465-4903.

Deadlines for receiving grant applications is December 31, 1980.
