

JOYCE LUND

October Teacher of the Month

Joyce Lund is our Elementary Teacher of the month for October 1980. Joyce teaches Kindergarten in the Hooper Bay

School and is a native of Colorado.

Joyce earned her BA in Elementary Education and Spanish at Adams State College in Colorado in 1973, and her MA in Elementary Education from the same college in 1976. She has since done post graduate work at Adams State College and the University of Southern Colorado.

Since beginning her teaching career in 1974, Joyce has taught Kindergarten, first grade and done some teaching at the college level.

Joyce's teaching experience has always been with Bilingual Bicultural children. Coming from a Bilingual Bicultural background herself, she continues to provide an individualized success oriented classroom environment for students which reflects the culture and language of her students.

She has also acted as a consultant for school district, regional and state workshops about Teacher-Made Materials in the Bilingual Classroom, Language Development and has served on numerous professional committees including the Colorado Department of Education Nutritional Committee and school district Recertification and Accountability Committees. She has also conducted several demonstrations about Teacher made Materials for the Bilingual Classroom and has presented a Bilingual Language Development lesson in Anchorage with kindergarten students from Hooper Bay. She is presently serving on the Lower Yukon Scholarship Committee.

Joyce's hobbies include vocal and instrumental music, sewing, Mexican cooking, and gardening. She is presently an organist for the Catholic Choir in Hooper Bay.

She and her husband, Karl, live in Hooper Bay.
