

Charles Goldmark worked on 1991 legislation

Charles Goldmark, Seattle attorney died Thursday, January 9 at the Harborview Medical Center, where he had been in critical condition since December 24, when he and his family were brutally attacked.

Goldmark, 41, worked with AFN attorneys on the 1991 legislation.

A trust has been established in Seattle and members of the family request contributions to the trust in lieu of flowers. The address for the trust is as follows:

Goldmark Family Trust
1st Interstate Bank
Main Branch
999 3rd Avenue
Seattle, WA 98104

Goldmark's death left his son Derek, 12, as the only survivor of the Christmas Eve attack.
