BUSINESS LEADER OF THE WEEK

CONGRATULATIONS GEORGE SEE

George L. See is Corporate Secretary and Special Assistant to the President of Sealaska Corp. He joined the Native Regional Corporation during its formative stage and was responsible for establishing the corporation's bookkeeping and accounting procedures. As Special Assistant to the President, George represents the chief executive at special events and has attended sessions of the state legislature as the corporation's lobbyist.

George was born in Juneau, but he considers Hoonah as his home. He studied at the University of Washington and has recently completed the Becker's CPA review course, an advanced study in accounting.

George has worked for the Boeing Company and was a field auditor for the State of Washington. Among his many other activities, he has served as controller for the Tlingit-Haida Indians of Alaska in Juneau.

United Bank Alaska proudly salutes George, and we congratulate him for being an outstanding member of our community.
