

Shareholders of BBNC re-elect four to board

The shareholders of Bristol Bay Native Corp. re-elected four members to the board at the 1989 annual shareholders meeting, which was held at the Anchorage Hilton Hotel earlier this winter.

The four directors re-elected to serve on the board for three-year terms are Daniel J. O'Hara, Marie Matsuno, Donald F. Nielsen and Hjalmar E. Olson.

O'Hara lives in Naknek. He is the owner of Bay Marine Surveyors and is a commercial fisherman. He is a board member of the Bristol Bay Borough School District.

He also serves as a member of the board of the Alaska Seafood Marketing Institute; the Advisory Board of National Bank of Alaska, King Salmon Branch; the Alaska Department of Fish and Game Naknek/Kvichak Advisory Board; and the advisory board of the North Pacific Fisheries Management Council.

A shareholder of BBNC, he has served as a director from 1972 to 1974 and from 1984 to present.

Matsuno lives in Anchorage. She is director of Constituent Services for Sen. Ted Stevens, R-Alaska. She is also a member of the Ann Stevens Memorial Foundation Board and a member of the Board of Advisors of Charter North Hospital and Lifeline Alternatives Board of Advisors.

A shareholder of BBNC, she has served as a director since 1980.

Nielsen, who also lives in Anchorage, is a commercial fisherman. He was formerly senior vice president and executive vice president of BBNC, and he also served as acting president of BBNC from October 1987 until June 1988.

He is chairman and a director of Bristol Corp. and Bristol Resource Inc. A shareholder of BBNC, he has served as a director since 1972.

Olson lives in Dillingham. He is a commercial fisherman. He also serves as a director of the Alaska Rural Investments, Tonuak Indian Credit Association and Alaska Commercial Co.

A shareholder of BBNC, he has served as director since 1974 and as chairman of the board since 1979.

Currently, BBNC is a diversified holding company. It has invested in the Anchorage Hilton Hotel; Tyrrell's Inc., a pet food company; a portfolio of public utility preferred stocks and public utility and industrial common stocks; and in enterprises which perform oil and gas drilling.
