

Be eager for learning, even if it comes from the snout of a hog.

The first coins called staters were made during the 600's B.C. in Lydea, a country in what is now Turkey, according to World Book Encyclopedia.