

8 Hi-schoolers Win ARCO Scholarships

ANCHORAGE, AK, June 13 — Eight Alaska high school seniors have won $1,000 scholarships in the Atlantic Richfield Company Scholarship Program, according to Howard A. Slack, vice president and resident manager of Alaska.

Chosen from 262 entries, the 1975 winners are: Carol Frost, West High School, Anchorage; Benjy Johnson, Kenai Central High School; Jason MacInnis, East Anchorage High School; Rob McKay, Hoonah High School; Richard Melvin, Homer High School; Bertha Moses, East Lathrop High School, Fairbanks; Bessie Sallison of Bethel, St. Mary's High School; and Mari Urata, Wrangell Public High School.

In addition to the eight winners, an equal number of alternates was chosen by the Atlantic Richfield Scholarship Committee.

The alternates, each of whom will receive a $100 savings bond, were Ben Foxglove, Jr., Selawik City High School; Tam Agosti, West Anchorage High School; Elena Gilila of Akiak, Mt. Edgecumbe High School; Kirk Medak and Michelle Massaro, both of West Anchorage High School; and Blanche Strong of Kiana, Mt. Edgecumbe High School.

Slack explained that the scholarship program is aimed at educational assistance to Alaskan youths showing leadership potential or the capacity to make significant contributions to the state. Other considerations were scholastic achievement, character, seriousness of purpose, and educational goals.

The scholarship money may be used at any institution of higher learning, whether inside or outside Alaska.
