

WHAT A SHARK

There's something fishy going on in Munich where real sharks can be seen in a popular night spot. The three-story cabaret was built as part of a huge tank filled with salt water. Forty sharks from the Atlantic are kept there, where patrons of the "Yellow Submarine" nightclub, a part of the Munich Holiday Inn, can watch them through huge portholes. Some fish might learn to drink like people!