

CITC sponsors fair for students

The Cook Inlet Tribal Council Inc. is sponsoring the third annual career fair for the Alaskan Native and American students to be held at the Anchorage Museum of History and Art Nov. 6 from 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

The exhibit tables will open at 9 a.m. and close at 1 p.m.

The purpose is to present various people and occupations to the students and give them the opportunity to explore and ask questions about different careers.

In the past two years, the exhibitors have brought brochures and other information regarding their career requirements and opportunities in Alaska.

"We have had close to 200 students attending the fair from all the Anchorage School District high schools," according to Virginia Thomas, JOM director at CITC.

Businesses interested in having a table at the fair may contact Thomas at 274-0752 between 7 a.m. and 2:30 p.m.
