

Senate panel OKs grant for the deaf

The Louise Rude Center for Deaf Adults in Anchorage would receive a $750,000 grant for a special demonstration program recommended by Sen. Ted Stevens in the Senate appropriations committee bill recently.

The money would be used for the construction of a residential center for deaf adults receiving rehabilitation services.