

Gambell News Notes

By GRACE SLWOOKO

There have been lots of walrus hunting here last week after two whales have been killed. They were caught by Aningayous' boat and Ozeva's.

There have been so much snow this spring that we still have it around the houses as high as the walls in some homes to this day May 19, 1977.

And there was very heavy storm yesterday that it looked like mid-winter again with blowing snow pretty high, that was May 18, 1977.

Dennis James got another very large polar bear the other day while out hunting on a boat with his crew. Also Alex Oozevas-euk and his crew got one.
