After drilling
at Kenai,
1,000 moose
joined us.

We worried and wondered whether our drilling at the Kenai Moose Preserve would disturb the moose.

The moose said no. Twelve years ago, when we came, there were 4,300 moose. Soon, there were 1,000 more.

We're here to drill for the oil under the ground. But we're determined to preserve whatever's on top.
