

Yes You Can!

Just like Sandra Bigelow, students across Alaska have achieved scholastic excellence. They are your classmates, people you know from your hometown. If they can excel so can you. Stay in school, work hard, you can achieve excellence!

High School: West Anchorage High
College: University of Alaska, 1970, Utah State University, 1988, present
Major: Clinical Psychology (Ph.D.)
 Sandi has received Sealaska Heritage scholarships for the past seven years

Goals: To Become a clinical psychologist and work with Alaska Native youth. Sandi has done volunteer work with SEARCH, and Healthy Life Styles groups when she is not in school.

Requirements for Sealaska Heritage Foundation Scholarships

Only completed applications will be considered. A completed application includes the following:

1. Sealaska Heritage Foundation Scholarship Application.
2. Letter of Application.
3. Official high school and college (if applicable) transcript of credits. Each applicant must arrange to have his/her official transcript(s) mailed to SHF before an award is given.
4. Two letters of recommendation (letters from relatives will not be accepted).
5. A copy of the student's (or parent's) Sealaska stock certificate; if the student is an American Native living in Southeast Alaska, a copy of their BIA enrollment.

To be eligible the student must be currently accepted or enrolled in a nationally or regionally accredited institution of higher education or vocational school, and be enrolled as a full-time student for the term of the award.

Scholarship awards are made by the Scholarship Selection Committee based on three criteria: scholastic achievement (maximum 4 points), character, leadership abilities, motivation, and potential (maximum 4 points), and financial need (2 points). Awards will be announced in early May 1990.

We do not accept collect calls, however, students may use the Sealaska Corporation toll free line: in Alaska—1 (800) 478-1512 ext. 170, and outside Alaska—1 (800) 544-2274 ext. 170. Write or call if you need assistance or have any questions.
