

Sleigh rides were just part of the activities during Nomes Second Annual Reindeer Fair last month. The fair also included presentations on reindeer handling, land management, research and disease, herding history, art displays and a potlatch featuring reindeer dishes.