

Better Be Safe Than Be Sorry

Safety experts agree that it is possible to cut the traffic toll in half.

If this were achieved now, it would mean prevention of 65.5 million accidents during the next 10 years, involving 117 million cars, 20 million injuries, and 225,000 deaths.

The Alaska State Police hopes that each Alaskan will do his part.