HOMEOWNERS...
YOU SHOULD KNOW...

Do you have an Alaska Housing Finance Corporation (AHFC) loan AND are making mortgage payments to a different lending institution than you did originally? If so, you have certain protections as outlined in Alaska Law (Section 18.56.135). This act insures that you are kept properly informed, within a certain period of time, if your mortgage is sold to another company. Your requests for information must be responded to in a timely manner and you also have certain rights concerning your escrow account.
