

Hensley named

At the annual meetings of Unicorp, Inc. and United Bank Alaska held Tuesday, Feb. 24, Willie Hensley was elected chairman of the board for both corporations and Fred Notti, vice president — Investments, of Calista Corporation, was elected a director of both corporations.

Richard E. Wagner, senior vice president of Frank B. Hall & Co. of Alaska, was elected a director of United Bank Alaska.

Britton E. Crosley, partner in Arthur Young & Co., resigned as chairman of both corporations since the policy of his company precludes his continuing on the board of these corporations now that they have completed their formative state and are now actively operating.
