

"I think I've got one of the best jobs on the Slope. As recreation coordinator for Atlantic Richfield Company, it's up to me to make sure that free time can be fun for the more than 650 ARCO employees who still work at Prudhoe Bay.

"I guess most people thought that once the pipeline construction was completed, everybody here would go home. Not so. There's a lot of work left to be done, and a large ARCO staff to help do it.

"People who work hard play hard, too. That's why ARCO provides complete recreational facilities—a small gym, sauna, sports equipment, concerts and movies—and a chance for me to move from a desk job in Anchorage to one of the best jobs north of the Brooks Range."

When a 12-hour shift
at Prudhoe Bay ends, Karel Milner's job
is just beginning.

Prudhoe Bay isn't the end of the oil-in-Alaska story. At Atlantic Richfield Company, we hope it's only the beginning.
