

Commission Seeks Better Understanding

A representative from the Alaska State Commission for Human Rights will be in Fairbanks from July 13 through 16.

The purposes of the Commission are to create throughout the State of Alaska, at the community level, a climate of understanding and mutual respect in which all Alaskans of whatever racial, religious, or cultural background, can and will be made to feel that all are equal in dignity and in human rights.

Anyone having complaints of discrimination in employment, public accommodations, or housing based on race, creed, color, national origin, age or sex, may contact Larmon V. Stennis at the at the Alaskan Motor Inn, 4th & Lacey, 456-5414.