

Teens to tackle world issues

World Issues and Intercultural Understanding is the theme for the fifth annual Alaska Conference for Teens — ACT V — to be held in Anchorage July 16-20.

Planned by teens for teens ages 14-19, the conference will focus on understanding the pressures and issues facing today's teens worldwide.

Of special interest will be cultural presentations representing the Scandinavian countries, Japan, the Philippines, Australia and France.

The registration fee of $175 includes room, meals, insurance and special programs. Scholarships are available.

Those who want more information may contact Susan Halbert, program coordinator, 4-H Youth Development, 2221 East Northern Lights Blvd., Suite #240, Anchorage 99508-4143; phone 279-5582.

The Alaska Conference for Teens is managed by the 4-H Youth Program of the University of Alaska Cooperative Extension Service and supported by Chevron USA Inc.
