WE are the power.

Business leaders claim their wealth gives them the power. Religious leaders claim their understanding gives them the power. Union leaders claim their members give them the power. Government leaders claim their function gives them the power.

Do not believe them; their claims are false. The people are the power. We work, lead moral lives, elect and pay taxes. We create and support the leaders. Without us they are without power.

If we do not like what the leaders are doing, we can make changes. I think, especially, we can help ourselves by making changes in our laws.

What are your views?

Positive Educational Planning
Now Insures a Prosperous Future

This photo was taken shortly after I was elected President of the Tanana Chiefs Conference. During my term I was successful in obtaining federal funds to start the Tanana Survival School and the Tanana Chiefs Conference Land Claims College. Two educational programs that I am sure will have positive long range implications on Rural Alaskan Education. Also I served as chairman of the AFN Human Resources Committee.
