

Fairbanks Artist

(SPECIAL)—Claire Fejes, Fairbanks artist, is the subject of an article by Janet Brunberg in the Spring and Summer issue of the "Alaska Review" published by Alaska Methodist University.

Says Miss Brunberg: "Claire has given to Alaska, in forms of oil, painting, watercolor, poetry and sculpture, abundant evidence of her love for the land and people. The strong bond between herself and the Eskimos is apparent in her oil paintings and drawings."

The article is illustrated by photographs of Mrs. Fejes' oil painting, "Cutting Whale at Point Hope," and by her drawing, "Eskimo Woman."

Claire Fejes and her husband are proprietors of The Hobby House in Fairbanks.
