

List of ASCAP Donors

Savoonga village council, $20; Huslia village council, $10; Mrs. Edith R. Bullock, $50; B&R Tug & Barge, Inc., $150; Fort Yukon Air Service, $200; Mr. Carl E. Moses, $100; Mike Valentine, $20; Jane Sutherland, $15; Mrs. O.J. Murie, $100; Dr. Richard W. Sutherland, $25; Arctic Eskimo Arts & Crafts Assoc., $25; Mr. Jake Okamoto, Anchorage, $50; Mr. & Mrs. Don Dunphy, Cantwell, $15; Mr. Kenneth C. Haycraft, Fairbanks, $120; Mr. Oron Seabert, $100; Selawik city council, $10; Bishop Wm. Gordon, $300; Cook Inlet Native Assn., $100; Native Arts & Crafts contribution, $138; Mr. Walter Sczudlo, $100; Mr. Donald E. Perkins, $50; Kuskokwim Valley Native Assoc., $50; Fairbanks Native Assoc., $100; Alaska Rehabilitation Assoc., $3,000; Nondalton, $100; St. Michael village council, $20; Robert B. Mandell, $5; Alfred Fothergill, $50; David Dougherty, $20; Charles Edwardson, Jr. $20; Allen Mercin, $50; Fiore Lekanof, $20; New Stuyahok, $25; Total cash: $5,210.

Besides cash donations, in-kind contributions of office space and other services have brought the total to well over the $9,600 needed.

In Fairbanks the Fairbanks Medical & Surgical Clinic, who have just moved to a new building, provided one year free rent for OEO offices in their old 4th Avenue building.

In Anchorage, the Tyonek Indians have donated considerable space in one of their office buildings in downtown Anchorage.