

Grant Is Approved For Five One-Year Scholarships at U A

The Indian Arts and Crafts Board has approved a $16,550 grant to the University of Alaska for five one-year scholarships effective this school year.

The scholarships will go to students in advanced arts and crafts and will be used for additional training in management, leadership, and arts and crafts.

The program will be under the supervision of Ronald Senungetuk.