

Pilfered Puzzle

Tundra Times editor and publisher Howard Rock, undergoing medical treatment at the 5040th Hospital on Elmendorf Air Force Base near Anchorage, says he's having a hard time finding a challenging crossword puzzle thereabouts. So the staff of Tundra Times is taking great liberties with our friends at the New York Times this week, liberating one of their crossword puzzles as an editorial get-well gift to Editor Rock.

Talking with the Tundra Times Tuesday, Rock said he was feeling better, walking around a bit and that he was delighted with the election of Doyon President John Sackett as chairman of the board of the Eskimo, Indian, Aleut Publishing Co., which publishes this newspaper.
