

Press Women Plan Meeting

ANCHORAGE, (Special) — At the recent meeting of the Alaska Press Women, plans were formulated for a state-wide meeting early in April to be held in Anchorage, according to Christine McClain, president.

At that time, state contest awards will be given and winners will be eligible for National competition, new officers and convention delegate will be named for the coming year. Houston, Texas has been selected for the June, 1966 National Convention of Press Women.

Alaskan women engaged in writing, advertising, radio and TV, interested in joining Alaska chapter of National Federation of Press Women may write to Yule Chaffin, treasurer, Box 805, Kodiak, Alaska for application blanks.
