What Saith the Scriptures?

The thought: "Had I never committed that...had I kept myself pure!" accompanies many a one through life, adding bitterness to their every joy. Because some could not endure the rebuke of a troubled conscience they have committed suicide, the number of whom has mounted alarmingly in the last few years. The greater number, however, continues sighing under the pressing weight of sin. With sorrowful mind they awaken in the morning, continuing the whole day under the pressing weight; while at night they cast themselves upon their beds with sighs. They cannot find peace or rest anywhere (Isa. 48:22); some seek to drown the voice of the Spirit of God with pleasures, drink or drugs, etc., but all is fruitless effort.

Oh, unhappy sinners, do you believe that help will come by lamenting and sighing? You must go to the Lord Jesus! He loves you, is ready to pardon you, if you will only come to Him repentant and confessing your sins, then you will find forgiveness and happiness for your heart.

"He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life but the wrath of God abideth on him" (John 3:36).

"Come now, and let us reason together, saith the Lord; though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool" (Isa. 1:18).

"The blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanseth us from all sin" (1 John 1:7).
