NOTICE OF AVAILABILITY OF DRAFT DAMAGE ASSESSMENT PLAN FOR THE EXXON VALDEZ OIL SPILL

A draft damage assessment plan for the Exxon Valdez oil spill has been jointly authored by the State of Alaska, the U.S. Departments of Agriculture and the Interior and the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration acting as natural resource trustees under the provisions of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act and the Clean Water Act. The draft plan is completed and is available for public review. A copy of the plan may be obtained by contacting the Trustee Council at the following address:

Trustee Council
P.O. Box 20792
Juneau, Alaska 99802

Comments from the public are being solicited to ensure that important resources are not omitted from the assessment, that the methodologies for the various studies are appropriate, and that the costs of the assessment are reasonable. Those comments must be received by September 30, 1989, at the address listed above. For further information concerning the plan and its distribution, please contact Mary Fitzgerald-Jones or Barbara Hyder at (907) 276-3550.
