

Tom Brower Sends Muktuk, Meat - Fairbanks Eskimos Feast

By GUY OKAKOK
Barrow Correspondent

FAIRBANKS We Eskimos in Fairbanks wants to give our gratitude and thanks to our friend Mr. Thomas P. Brower, Sr. who donated some of his catch this month, and who stationed in Barrow, Alaska.

This is not the first donations Mr. Brower ever did, but all these years. Brower shares of his catch such as whale meat, muktuk, deer meat and so on.

Day ago, Mrs. Mabel Hopson, wife of Sam Hopson employee of Wien Consolidated Airlines, called up to each Eskimos through phone that any Eskimos who wishes to come to her home 21st Avenue, and participate some of the muktuk and meat what Mr. Brower had send in.

When I went over there are about 20 or more in Mabel's house eating muktuk and meat even whale intestine was there on the table. What a day we Eskimos were having.

Mr. Brower owns two stores in village town and one at Brothersville which is 3-4 mile from town. He even owns hotel and restaurant.

You newcomers or visitors, drop in to Mr. Brower's restaurant, you'll have nice juicy muktuk, meat and deer meat whichever way you want them, it's there, drop in.

HOMeward

Several students from Mt. Edgecumbe High School arrives here in Fairbanks. Names as follows:

These high school students were sure happy to come out from school, not only this but wants to be with their parents.

After all, they been away 10 month.

Also, when they could get away from rain.

They walked all over in town Happy enjoying themselves. Some said they had a wonderful education in Mt. Edgecumbe. The principals they have before were there, Mr. Wells and Mr. Griffin. They were principals in Barrow before and that's why they like the school there.

They said they all will be leaving Fairbanks early in the morning.

ESKIMO DANCERS

The Eskimos who are setting up Eskimos dancing in Alaska-land made an decision. Schedules on performance dancing each day will be on 1:30 p.m., 3:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m.

Don't miss this program because lot of you people who never did see an Eskimo dance before come and see the fun.

Eskimo womens in performing will appear from entrance and go on till they all disappears from the platform while the drummer still beating.

Come and see it. Good luck.
