

Young Lady Wins Heroism Medal Design

The Governor's office announced recently that Kathy Shapley, 16, of Craig submitted the winning design for the State Medal for Heroism in a statewide design competition for school children.

Kathy's design of outstretched hands, depicting one human being coming to the aid of another is, in the words of Governor William Egan, "very moving."

All too often a clear conscience is merely the result of a bad memory.