(Editor's Note: Senator Gruening released the following in his weekly newsletter from Washington, D.C. and titled it, "FOR THOSE WHO FEEL YOUNG.")

Senator Gruening this week announced he supported proposed legislation which would make it possible for widows and widowers to retain their social security benefits in case either should remarry.

The Senator said social security benefits were meager enough without reducing them further.

The Senator's statement came in response to a query from Rep. Claude Pepper (D-Fla.) who asked that Senator Gruening support an amendment to the Social Security Act if it reached the Senate floor.
