

Rhoda Kikoak's Rabbit Recipe

Rhoda Kikoak, writing in THE DRUM of Inuvik, N.W.T., offers her recipe for cooking rabbit.

"This is a new way I cook my rabbits. This is a very tasty recipe. I'll write the recipe in case someone might like to try it out. I'll call it deep fried rabbit.

"Clean and cut the rabbit same as usual. Beat one egg until light. Add $\frac{3}{4}$ cup water and two tablespoons lemon juice. Stir in dry ingredients such as one cup of flour and one teaspoon baking powder.

"Dip rabbit meat in the batter and fry until brown.

"This same recipe is used on fish too. I tried it on both and it works fine. There is plenty of rabbits this year and are very fat too."
