

Air Carriers elect officers

Kenneth C. Eichner, President of Temsco Helicopters, Inc., of Ketchikan, was elected February 26 as President of the Alaska Air Carriers Association, Inc., the Alaska air industry trade association.

Other officers elected included James L. Dodson, President of Frontier Flying Service, Inc., Fairbanks, Vice President; and C. R. Gallagher, President of Evergreen Helicopters, Inc., Anchorage, as Secretary-Treasurer.

Elected to Board positions in the Association were Orin Seybert, President of Peninsula Airways, Inc., which operates from King Salmon in the Bristol Bay area and the Alaska Peninsula, representing the Southcentral District; Michael B. Salazar, President of Ketchikan Air Service, Inc., Ketchikan; representing Southeastern. Returned to his Board seat representing the Interior was Harold Esmailka of Harold's Flying Service, Ruby and Galena.