

Ahtna gets new building

Ahtna, Inc., the Copper Center based Native regional corporation, has moved its Anchorage office to 406 West Fireweed Lane, Suite 101, according to Roy S. Ewan, corporation president. The telephone number remains the same, 274-7662.

In making the move, Ahtna will be settling in its own building, recently purchased, as part of the company's strategy for corporate diversification, Ewan said.

The newly formed Voss/Ahtna joint venture will locate in the building also.

Ahtna, Inc. will continue to maintain its main corporate office in Copper Center.
