

Queen candidates

Native women interested in competing in the Eskimo-Indian Olympics queen contest can pick up applications at the Fairbanks Native Association, 310 First Avenue. The Olympics will be held July 29, 30 and 31. The deadline for entering the contest is July 9.

To be eligible contestants must be 18 years of age, at least one-fourth Alaskan Native, Canadian Native or American Indian and never been married or had children.

Contestants will be judged on their knowledge of Native people, culture, traditional ways and on current issues that have an impact on their life and people.

For further information call 452-1648.